Discrimination Law

In July Deputy Michelle Le Clerc presented the proposals for the new Law to the States.

The States agreed for the new Law to be written.

Equality and Rights Organisation

This organisation will now be called the Employment and Equal Opportunities service.

It will help everyone to understand how to act within the new Law.

Information and news

The island wide election will take place in October. Members of the Ron Short centre and service users of the Adult Disability service helped review the easy read documents.

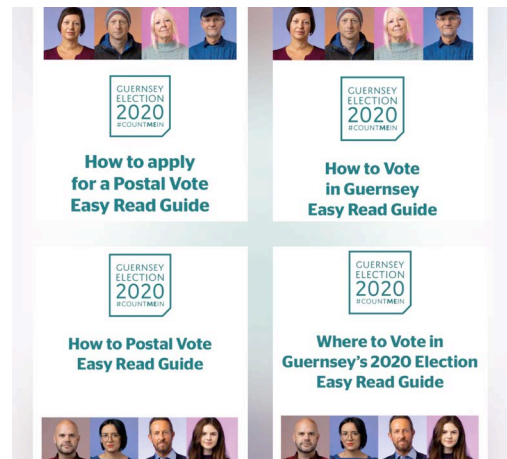

These will help people to know:

“How to vote”

“How to apply to postal vote”

“How to postal vote” and

“Where to vote”.

The hidden disability training was given to the new Police Officers

The Beau Sejour centre have a new accessible toilet on the concourse level.

This will mean there is a toilet nearby when people go to concerts and events.

The new pedestrian crossing at Lower Vauvert was finished.

Framework for people with Dementia

The Tovertafel is a special table with moving images.

It can be used on Monday to Friday 9-5 pm at the Nouvelle Maritaine.
